THE INVASION OF MARYLAND.

The Washington Star of this evening says that on Sunday evening a force of from fifteen hundred to two thousand entered Rockville and passed through to a point a few miles this side of that village. Halting there for a brief while, they retraced their steps to the town, where they bivouacked for the night.

This morning they are engaged with the cavalry force under the command of Col. Lowell, thrown out to ascertain their strength and character. No information embracing details of this progressing the engagement have yet been received here.

The point where the fight was in progress was in the vicinity of Rabbit's Creek Post Office, between Tennallytown and Rockville.

The Republican says:—The march of battalions was heard in our streets at intervals all night, and now we are guarded at all points from attack.

At an early hour this morning some firing was heard in the direction of Rockville, but it is not believed that any serious fighting took place.

The losses of Gen. Wallace, in the battle at Monocacy, are set down at 1,500, of whom 600 were taken prisoners.

BALTIMORE, July 11.—The Confederate cavalry burnt Gov. Bradford's residence this morning. It is only four miles out on the Charles street road. A squad of ten men did the work.

They came to the residence and ordered out the Governor's family, permitting them to take only a few valuables, and then fired it.—The furniture and all was destroyed. The Governor was in the city, and was not captured.

The rebels are now operating on the Philadelphia and Wilmington road, and it is expected the wires will soon be cut.

There is great excitement. The citizens are arming and going out mounted to fight the Confederate cavalry.

FIGHTING ON THE 7TH STREET ROAD, NEAR WASHINGTON

Messengers just in report lively skirmishing going on this morning in the vicinity of Fort Massachusetts, (near Clagett's place,) some four miles out.

The Confederates did not show themselves in large force there, however.

TELEGRAPH WIRES CUT.

WASHINGTON, July 11, 12.20 p. m.—All of our lines have just been cut between here and Baltimore by the rebel invaders.

J. M. LOCKE.

The wires of the Independent Telegraph Company have been cut by the Confederates north of Baltimore, as have also those of the American Company, four in number, which run along the roads to the west of the railroad. None of the wires on the railroad on the east of it have been disturbed.

The Washington Republican says:—Secretary Stanton last night received information of the rebel movement of such importance that he dispatched a messenger to the Soldiers' Home for the President, who immediately came to the city.

THE FLORIDA.

The Washington Republican says: We learn that the Florida, on Saturday last, burned a vessel loaded with coal belonging to the Government about twenty miles from Cape Henry. Gunboats were sent immediately in pursuit.

LATER.

The mail steamer Keyport, Capt. Talbert arrived this morning from City Point. She reports that on Saturday night a large brig, laden, it is stated, with Government stores for Newbern, N. C. was captured by a privateer, supposed to be the Florida.

The brig was in tow of the tug America, and as she was being towed outside of Cape Henry a vessel was discovered making towards them, which fired several times at the brig, when the tug fearing capture, cast her off and made for Fortress Monroe, where she reported the facts, and three of the fastest vessels of war there were immediately sent in pursuit of the steamer, which, when last seen, had made fast to the brig.—[Washington Star.
